.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue order direction writ more particularly one in the nature of writ of Mandamus directing the respondents to appoint the petitioner in any suitable job in West Godavari District in the Judicial unit of the 2nd respondent in the place of deceased father on compassionate or humanitarian or sympathetic grounds.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MR.P.R.K.AMERANDRA KUMAR

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

The Court made the following :

ORAL ORDER: (per the Hon'ble the Chief Justice)

Petitioner's father died in harness on 17th March, 1997. On attaining majority by the petitioner, a request for appointment was made which was not granted. Earlier W.P.No.6037 of 2000 was disposed of on 17th July, 2000 with certain directions and observing that petitioner was not eligible for appointment. But liberty was reserved to the petitioner that in case vacancies were to be notified for being filled up, application can be made and it will be duly considered with compassion.

There is no manner of doubt that petitioner in case is otherwise entitled for being considered for the posts which have now been notified and has in fact applied for being considered, there is no reason why such application will not be considered on its own merits along with others. Petitioner cannot claim any preferential right for being appointed. Application of the petitioner will have to be considered on par with other candidates.

With these observations, writ petition stands disposed of.
